The most popular cities for American trivago.com users in 2015 are the usual suspects, Las Vegas (1), New York (2), Orlando (3), Chicago (4), and Anaheim (5). For 2016, why not take the road less traveled and upgrade your vacation by visiting the best-rated destinations in America – cities and states whose reputations for accommodation are wowing tourists.

Based on a combination of trivago's rating Index (tRI®) and verified user reviews aggregated from 31 different booking sites,* we used trivago's proprietary data to find out just which cities and states have the best hotels in America for 2016.

About trivago Reputation Ranking

With over 200 million user ratings gathered from hotel, booking, and review sites all across the web, we've crafted a comprehensive, transparent, unbiased index for hotel ratings that we call the tRI®—and we are happy to share what we find. Cities with over 50 hotels, and a minimum average of 140 user ratings per hotel, were taken into account. We consider 100% as a perfect score, because how much more perfect can hotels in a city get?
